

GDPR Policy – Skaters Club

Introduction

This GDPR Policy ("Policy") outlines how the Skaters Club (the "Club") collects, uses, discloses, and protects the personal data of its members and other individuals in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation ("GDPR").

Data Controller

Lorraine Evans is the data controller for the Club and the personal data it collects and processes.

Types of Personal Data Collected

The Club collects the following types of personal data:

- Name, Phone Number, Email Address and Age of its members.
- Photographs and Videos of members taken during Club activities and events.
- Last 4 digits of payment cards of its members who pay membership fees or make donations.
- Feedback and survey responses from its members.

Purpose of Processing Personal Data

The Club processes personal data for the following purposes:

- To manage membership and Club activities.
- To communicate with members about Club events, news, and updates.
- To process membership fees and donations.
- To improve the Clubs services and activities.
- To comply with legal and regulatory requirements.

Legal Basis for Processing Personal Data

The Club processes personal data on the following legal bases:

- The Club has obtained consent from its members for processing their personal data.
- Processing personal data is necessary for the performance of a contract between the Club and its members.
- Processing personal data is necessary for the Club's legitimate interests in managing and promoting its activities.

Sharing Personal Data

The Club may share personal data with the following parties:

- Service providers who assist the Club in managing membership, communications, and payments.
- Regulatory authorities and law enforcement agencies where required by law.
- Other organisations with the consent of the individual whose personal data is being shared.

Retention of Personal Data

The Club will retain personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected, including for legal and regulatory purposes. The Club will securely delete or anonymize personal data once it is no longer required.

Individual Rights

Individuals have the following rights in relation to their personal data:

- The right to access and obtain a copy of their personal data.
- The right to request correction of their personal data.
- The right to request erasure of their personal data.
- The right to object to processing of their personal data.
- The right to restrict processing of their personal data.
- The right to data portability.
- The right to withdraw consent to processing of their personal data.

Individuals may exercise their rights by contacting the Club's data protection officer.

Data Security

The Club will implement appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure the security and confidentiality of personal data, including protecting personal data against accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure, or access.

Contact Information

If you have any questions or concerns about the Club's GDPR Policy, or if you wish to exercise your individual rights, please contact the Club's data protection officer via email to:

lorraine@skatersclub.org.uk